FERN AVENUE P. T. A. ELECTS OFFICERS

Officers for the coming year, who were elected at the meeting of the Fern Avenue Parent Teachers Association Tuesday are Mrs. Charles Arzilli, re-elected president; Mrs. W. T. Jones, first vice president; Mrs. Oda Vans, second vice president; Mrs. W. J. Bowers, secretary; Mrs. C. D. Lowen, treasurer; Mrs. W. J. Scrivner, auditor; Mrs. Floyd Evans, historian.

Mrs. L. A. Stump conducted the election. Miss McDuff's pupils of the A-5 and B-6 classes gave an interesting program on Japan, composed entirely by themselves. The principal feature was a talk on Japan given by Miss McDuff, dressed in Japanese costume, who brought a glimpse of the life and customs which are seldom seen or heard. Miss McDuff was for six years a teacher in Japan, and brought back with her a great number of souvenirs of her stay, some of which she displayed at the meeting. She described methods of decorating textile materials for wearing apparel and showed samples of the textiles. No pins or buttons are used in fastening a Japanese costume, all pieces being held in place by elaborate sashes. Miss McDuff briefly described the earthquake in Tokio in 1923, at which one million people lost their lives.

PARIS. (U.P.)—Worth is showing an attractive sport outfit that has decided Hitlerian tendencies. It is a high-necked brown sweater, which is worn with a white skirt that is spattered with little brown swastikas. The outfit is extremely simple, its sole decorations being a row of tiny buttons running down under the chin and a plain gold clasp on the belt.

Figured skirts with jackets of a solid color are very popular. Schiaparelli shows a skirt of checkered black and white wool, which is worn with a tailored black jacket. The same house shows a tweed suit in bold de rose, with the skirt of one weave and the jacket of another. By the way, bold de rose promises to be one of the best colors for spring and summer.

Another good shade for spring is a warm, yellowish gold. The Maison de Blanc has an entire window filled with hats and dresses which carry out the popular gold and brown color combination. A dress in gold will have a "triangular" brown scarf at the neck, brown belt and buttons, and will be worn with a shallow-crowned gold straw sailor, which is trimmed in brown grosgrain ribbon. Simplicity seems to be the keynote in all the daytime clothes.

TODAY'S FASHION TIP

Use of the German swastika motif in a sweater suit makes an attractive sports costume.

PHILATHEA CLASS DINNER MEETING

Members of the Philathea Class of the Methodist church school met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Helen Fasnault, Redondo Beach, for their monthly potluck dinner and business session. Those who attended included Mesdames Marie Morgan, Alice Beck, Mary Jones, Frances Snodgrass, Alice Totten, Leah Hall, Hazel Lewis, Carl Cheadle and Helen Burgener.

PUBLIC INVITED TO LECTURE

The public is invited to attend a high school and call next Thursday morning, May 2, at 8:45, when Garner Curran will deliver a lecture on "Our Trans-Pacific Neighbors." The talk will be illustrated with stereopticon pictures, and is said to be interesting and instructive.

Largest Crowds In History of Pageant Expected This Season

HEMET—Preparations for handling the largest crowds in the history of California's most famous outdoor play have been made by the management of the twelfth annual Ramona Pageant, it was revealed today by Emily Freeman, general manager. The play will be given Saturday and Sunday afternoons, April 27 and 28, and May 4 and 5 and May 11 and 12, in the 6,000-seat Ramona Bowl at the foot of Mt. San Jacinto. The great amphitheatre is only a 10-minute drive from the center of the city of Hemet.

Starring roles in the play this season will be taken by Jean Innes, formerly of the New York Ramona, for her third season, and Victor Jory, popular motion picture star, who is appearing as Alessandro for his sixth season. In the supporting cast are such favorites with Ramona Pageant audiences as Adelaide Clarke, of Riverside, in the role of the Senora Moreno; Frank D. Fell, of Ventura, as Father Salvadora; Hatde Lawell, as Margarita; Mrs. H. E. Jones, as Aunt R.; Kenneth Slaybaugh, of Pasadena, as Joe, and Archie O'Loan, of Banning, as Luligo.

The musical atmosphere will be supplied by Jose Arias and his Mexican troubadours, who will come from Los Angeles to participate in the play for their twelfth season. Persons who attended the Ramona play in its earlier years will be interested in the announcement that James Childs, of South Pasadena, is returning to the cast this season as the Indian sobel who sings the "Invocation to the Sun" from the topmost rim of the amphitheatre during the closing moments of the spectacular drama. Mr. Childs returns to the play after an absence of seven years. Ticket reservations are being received at the Ramona Pageant office in greater number than in any past year and persons desiring seats for the Sunday performance are advised to secure them in advance.

The Ramona Pageant is a non-profit community enterprise sponsored by the people of Hemet and San Jacinto and the play is based on the novel, Ramona, by Helen Hunt Jackson. WOMAN'S CLUB DANCE POPULAR AFFAIR Parties sponsored by Torrance Woman's Club and held each month at the Hollywood Riviera club have become quite popular with those who care to dance. Fifty persons from Torrance were present at the Saturday evening affair. The next dance is listed for Saturday, May 18.

PAST PRESIDENTS' PARTY LOVELY AFFAIR

A note of spring was the theme chosen by past presidents of Torrance Woman's Club for the luncheon, bridge party and style show given by them in the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia avenue, Wednesday.

One hundred and twenty ladies attended the affair. Tables were attractively arranged with covers of print and plaid. Tallies, with ladies dressed in print gowns and bonnets, were made by members of the committee.

According to Frank Buffington, manager of the J. C. Penney Company Torrance store, cotton materials have come into their own. Pajamas, sunsuits, dresses, smocks and coats selected from the stock in the Penney store were modeled by Velora Murphy, Ethel Ward and Betty Neelands. One especially attractive sunsuit was of bright red plaid with a fitted jacket of dark blue gingham. Suits of crash were most effective.

The luncheon was prepared by several food companies among which were Kraft, Cudahy, Sparklets, Iris, Weber and Adohr. Women holding certain numbers received the various foods advertised. Prizes in auction bridge were awarded to Margaret Fordice and Mrs. F. Smith. Prizes in contract bridge went to Mrs. Ellis Harder and Mrs. Ray Young. Mrs. Willis Brooks, general chairman for the affair, was assisted by Mesdames Edna Stone, Carrie Parks, Louise Sammons, Caroline Collins, Aida Hudson, Julia Neelands and Mildred Lancaster.

O. E. S. BREAKFAST SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

Joy of the Easter-lites was exemplified at the breakfast served to 150 persons Sunday by ladies of Torrance chapter, Order of Eastern Star, in the Masonic temple. In their bright spring toggery, women who attended vied with the colorfully appointed breakfast tables in suggesting the brightness of the season. Flowers in blue and gold were placed at graceful intervals on the tables and were connected with chains of fern. Easter bunnies in nests of colored eggs completed the decorative scheme. Mrs. Gwendolyn Knudsen and her committee were responsible for the decorations and serving. Sally West and Lillian Dye with their committee prepared the breakfast.
